CHAPTER 59:51

RENT RESTRICTION (SHORT TENANCIES) ACT

1950 Ed.
Ch 27. No. 20.
14 of 1944.

An Act to modify the application of the Rent Restriction Act in the case of certain short tenancies.

Commencement.

[8TH JUNE 1944]

Short title and construction.

Ch. 59:50.
Ch. 59:52.

1. This Act may be cited as the Rent Restriction (Short Tenancies) Act, and shall be read and construed as one with the Rent Restriction Act (which Act is hereinafter referred to as the Rent Restriction Act) and the Rent Restriction (Serviced Premises) Act [which Act is hereinafter referred to as the Rent Restriction (Serviced Premises) Act].

Interpretation.

2. In this Act, the expression “Principal Act” means the Rent Restriction Act and the Rent Restriction (Serviced Premises) Act; and the expressions “landlord” and “tenant” shall have the meaning ascribed to them in the Rent Restriction Act or in the Rent Restriction (Serviced Premises) Act respectively according as these expressions, or either of them, are or is used in relation to dwelling houses or serviced premises.

Provisions as to short tenancies.

3. (1) If a landlord, who ordinarily resides in his own dwelling house or in his own serviced premises, is residing, or intends to reside elsewhere, temporarily, the Board may on the application of such landlord, approve the letting of the dwelling house or serviced premises, as the case may be, by such landlord to some other person (hereinafter referred to as a “temporary tenant”) on any terms permissible under the Principal Acts for any period not exceeding six months.

(2) If a tenant of a dwelling-house or of serviced premises is residing, or intends to reside elsewhere, temporarily, the Board may, on the application of such tenant, approve the letting of the dwelling house or serviced premises, as the case may be, by such tenant to some other person (hereinafter referred to as a “temporary tenant”) on any terms permissible under the Principal Acts for any period not exceeding six months; but no such approval shall be given unless the landlord has been given an opportunity of submitting his views to the Board.

UNOFFICIAL VERSION

UPDATED TO 31ST DECEMBER 2016

(3) Subject to the provisions hereinafter contained, whenever under the provisions of subsections (1) and (2) any letting has been approved by the Board, then, if the premises are a dwelling house, section 14 of the Rent Restriction Act shall not apply in relation to such letting (hereinafter referred to as an “approved letting”) and, if the premises are serviced premises, section 14 of that Act, as modified in its application to serviced premises by the Rent Restriction (Serviced Premises) Act, shall not apply in relation to such approved letting.

Ch. 59:50.

Ch. 59:52.

4. (1) Without prejudice to any other rights or remedies of a landlord or tenant or to the provisions of section 7 of this Act, a landlord or tenant may, not later than one month after the termination of the period of an approved letting, apply to the Board for a warrant of possession whenever any temporary tenant of such landlord or tenant (as the case may be) remains in occupation of any dwelling house or serviced premises the subject matter of such approved letting after the termination of the said period of approved letting, and the Board shall, as soon as possible thereafter, issue a warrant under the hand of the Chairman to any constable of the district within which such dwelling house or serviced premises is situated commanding him, within seven days from the date of such warrant, to enter, by force if necessary, into the dwelling house or serviced premises and give possession of the same to such landlord or tenant; but entry upon any such warrant shall not be made on a Sunday, Good Friday, Corpus Christi or Christmas Day. Such warrant shall be as near as may be, in the form set out as Form A in the Schedule.

Rights of landlord or tenant to obtain warrant of possession from Board in cases of holding over.

Form A.
Schedule.

(2) Where a landlord or a tenant, after the termination of a period of approved letting, fails to apply for a warrant of possession of the dwelling-house or serviced premises concerned within the time prescribed by subsection (1), section 3(3) shall not apply in relation to such dwelling-house or serviced premises.

5. A landlord or tenant may apply to the Board for the cancellation of an approved letting on any of the grounds set out in section 14(1)(a), (b), (c), (d), (m) or (n) of the Rent Restriction

Board empowered to cancel an approved letting in certain cases.
